About Susan G. Komen for the Cure. North Central Alabama Affiliate

Nancy G. Brinker promised her dying sister, Susan G. Komen, she would do everything in her power to end breast cancer forever. In 1982, that promise became Susan G. Komen for the Cure and launched the global breast cancer movement. Today, Komen for the Cure is the world's largest grassroots network of breast cancer survivors and activists fighting to save lives, empower people, ensure quality care for all and energize science to find the cures. Thanks to events like the Komen Race for the Cure, Komen has invested nearly $1 billion to fulfill their promise, becoming the largest source of nonprofit funds dedicated to the fight against breast cancer in the world. The Susan G. Komen for the Cure North Central Alabama Affiliate is the only affiliate in Alabama and covers a 38 county area throughout north central Alabama. In 2009, the Komen North Central Alabama Affiliate will invest more than $575,000 in local community grants which provide funding for free mammograms for women in need and other vital breast health services and programs. In addition, in 2009 the Komen North Central Alabama Affiliate contributed over $200,000 to the Komen National Breast Cancer Research program. For more information about Susan G.
